Dear Sir/

141

You will probably have forgotten all about me- but I take the liberty of addressing you as the friend & travelling companion of the late Miss Harriet Martineau- My name was then Miss Jeffery- I have changed it to Mrs Mc Kee & have a husband, sons & daughters to whom I shd much like to introduce you-

When you were in London a short time
after my return from the U States I saw
you at South Chapel Tenisbury - & you after wards dined with me at my Uncle's, Mr Warren of Highbury House - Is Irving dead who is I am sorry to say (since dead).
If I knew yr address I wd call on you & persuade you to come & dine with us some day that was convenient to you. in quite a quiet friendly way -
as I hear you are

somewhat of an invalid & not inclined to much excitement or exertion.
Will you kindly let me have yr address & the hour when it is agreeable to you to receive calls-Please to address a letter

Mrs Mc Kee
